LATE NEWS.

AN IMPORTANT CONTRACT.
Lima, July 17.—The first seven clauses of the Grace British bondholders' contract with Peru have been approved by the Chamber of Deputies. The most important of these clauses is the seventh, which requires the Peruvian Government to pay to the British bondholders committed £200,000 annually for thirty-three years.

AN ATTEMPT TO KILL DON PEDRO.
Rio Janeiro, July 17.—The Emperor of Brazil attended a theatrical performance last night. As he was leaving the theatre at the conclusion of a Portuguese opera, a shot at him. The bullet missed the mark, and the would-be assassin was arrested.

CROPS IN HUNGARY.
Pest, July 17.—The wheat crop in Hungary is below the average and is in poor condition owing to the shrinking of the grain in the ear. Corn is in good condition. The vineyards make an excellent showing.

A RISK IN STEEL.
Berlin, July 17.—At a meeting at Magdeburg yesterday it was decided to allow members of the sugar ring until September 15th to fulfil contracts. An immediate rise in prices ensued.

A NEW WEDDING ATTEMPT.
London, July 17.—A new wedding attempt, "Perfect Love," has been exposed, composed by Joseph Bate for the marriage of the Princess Louise and the Earl of Fife.

AN EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.
London, July 17.—A violent shock of earthquake was felt on the island of Arran and the mainland of Scotland this morning.

DEATH OF A PRINCESS.
Copenhagen, July 17.—Princess Augusta, sister of the Queen of Denmark, is dead.

THE TENANTS' DEFENCE LEAGUE.
London, July 14.—The Irish Tenants' Defence League Committee has formulated a programme of proceedings which is to be submitted to the general convention at Dublin. It has been decided to make the new movement so general as to include all displace and existing methods of action which have had any counteraction at all from responsible persons. This it is concluded is the wisest course, and most likely to unite all patriotic and law-abiding Irishmen in one great union of action.

The entire tenantry of Ireland and members of the National League are to be federated in the Tenants' League. A general fund is to be raised to defray the cost of legal resistance to evictions for non-payment of rent, the subject of non-payment to be sent forth and debated in a meeting which may possibly prove something of a revelation, even to many friends of home rule who condemn Irish tenantry always for their rental troubles. Conjoined with this plan or operation, which is attributed chiefly to Mr. O'Brien, is a scheme which originated with Mr. Davitt for the general expropriation of landlords. These plans have been submitted to the judgment of Gladstone, Morley and Sir G. O. Trevelyan, and their tacit consent to them has been obtained. In other words, the great Liberal leader and his most calm and judicious allies approve the new movement entirely, so far as it has been developed, but will take no direct part in it until such time as they speak or act as English Liberals and statesmen, and carry greater weight with them than if they had hurriedly entered the fight now simply as partisans in the cause of Ireland.

MINISTER WASHINGTON CONDENSERS BOUNGERS.
London, July 14.—Mr. Waddington, the French Ambassador here, gave a banquet this evening to prominent members of the French colony. In a speech after the banquet the Ambassador declared against Boulangerism. He denied that the Boulangerist programme had its parallel in America, because, he said, in America, the President is elected, not by the universal suffrage, but by delegates of the States. Moreover, in America there was practically no standing army and coup d'état was therefore impossible. The triumph of Boulanger must end in disaster for France. He himself did not believe that Boulanger would succeed, but nevertheless he considered it necessary for the countrymen to rally around President Carnot in defence of the republic.

ANOTHER SCENE IN THE CHAMBER.
Paris, July 14.—It was hoped that Saturday would see the close of the Parliamentary session. It was not so, however, for the Chamber of Deputies failed to prolong its existence a few days longer. The last moments have been marked by incidents which will but slightly add to the glory of the task it has achieved. On Friday facilius were exchanged with remarkable liberality, and the presidents of the Council explained the officials of the republic were permitted in the East to receive presents, great or small, without compromising the character or dignity of their offices. On Saturday L. Herriès, a Boulangerist Deputy, was forcibly expelled from the parliamentary arena. If the session continues many days longer it will be impossible to forget what may happen.

THE FOURTEENTH JULY.
Paris, July 14.—The one hundredth anniversary of the fall of the Bastille was celebrated by public meeting and fêtes in Paris and throughout the provinces. A band of rogues to-day gathered at the Tuileries Café, and the French flag was displayed, which so enraged the mob that they tore it down and trampled it in the mud. They then made an attack on the café and completely wrecked the place. The fireworks at the Tuileries were somewhat marred by rain, but the Place de la Concorde, the Champs Elysées, the Bois de Boulogne, the Eiffel tower and the Trocadere Palace were ablaze with light.

BOULANGER'S CASE.
Paris, July 16.—General Boulanger, M. Bocheron and Count Dillon are summoned to appear within ten days. If they do not appear within twenty days they will be declared outlaws, and their property will be confiscated until they appear. It is stated that the trial has been fixed for August 10th. The judgment will be final, no appeal being allowed. The indictment charges the accused with instigating the issue of manifestos against the Government in July, 1887, at Lyons and Paris; and in December, 1887, in Paris.

Paris, July 16.—The Temps says—Other telegrams have been discovered which prove that General Boulanger was at the head of a plot to march upon the Elysee Palace, and that several officers of high rank had promised him their support. The Temps further says the charges of embezzlement against Boulanger relate to the purchase of a camp bedstead and other supplies for the troops and to the malversation of funds of the war ministry. It says that the General is accused of using the funds of the war ministry to buy shares in the Military Club and of keeping the shares thus bought.

TO THE DEAR.—A Person cured of Deafness and noise in the head of 23 years, standing by a simple remedy, will send a description of it free to any Person who applies to N. B. 21, Bedford Square, London, W. O., England.
